

Claims

- 1) A garment having at least one closure that is closed by a garment closure means wherein opening of said closure means is facilitated by one at least automated means coupled to said closure.
5
- 2) The garment of claim 1, wherein the garment comprises one at least of lingerie, bathing suit, jacket, top, dress, skirt, and evening wear.
- 3) The method of using automated means in the removal of one at least garments from a model.
10
- 4) The method of facilitating the removal of one at least garments from a model in response to one at least remote signals.
- 5) A garment closure means influenced to open by automated means.
15
- 6) A garment closure means influenced to open by remote means.
- 7) The method step of issuing one at least commands from a means remote to the wearer of a garment that causes said garment to undo in part at least.
20
- 8) A remote apparatus that transfers and/or facilitates transfer of information influencing one at least closures, on one at least garments on a model, to open in part at least.
- 9) A remote apparatus that facilitates the removal of garments from a model.
25